Delgani Quartet

Considered “the state’s finest chamber ensemble” by Oregon Arts Watch, the Delgani String Quartet presents exciting performances of both classic and contemporary repertoire in intimate concert settings. The quartet curates their own subscription series in Portland, Salem, and Eugene while regularly appearing as guest artists throughout the state. Delgani has also performed at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in NYC and at Charles University in Prague.

Delgani’s upcoming 2021/2022 Subscription Series celebrates the music of today with a compelling contemporary work on every program: Reza Vali’s String Quartet No. 3 (2001), John Luther Adams’ The Wind in High Places (2011), Gabriela Lena Frank’s Leyendas (2001), and Elena Ruehr’s String Quartet No. 3 (2001). Each of these works will be performed alongside standards from the canon resulting in four unique programs.

Committed to community engagement, Delgani provides educational opportunities to students throughout the Willamette Valley. The quartet’s Classical Spark program brings the string quartet to third grade classrooms in Lane County to foster an early interest in music. During the last two years, Delgani has held residencies with student composers at the University of Oregon. In previous seasons the quartet has held residencies at Umpqua Community College and the Springfield Academy of Arts and Academics. Each summer, Delgani manages for middle and high school students — a Chamber Music Camp for all instruments in Eugene and a Summer Quartet Academy in Cottage Grove, Oregon. Delgani also hosts biannual Adult Chamber Music Workshops for amateur enthusiasts and curates an adult education series prior to each subscription series concert.

Delgani was formed in 2014 with a mission to cultivate an appreciation for chamber music through distinctive performance, innovative programming, educational engagement, and collaboration. The organization operates as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit and has received foundation support from the Oregon Cultural Trust, Oregon Community Foundation, Oregon Arts Commission, Lane Arts Council, Springfield Arts Commission, and Springfield Education Foundation. Delgani is the recipient of consecutive Cultural Development Grants from OCT and consecutive Creative Heights Grant from OCF.

The musicians of Delgani are violinists Wyatt True and Jannie Wei, violist Kimberlee Uwate, and cellist Eric Alterman. They have performed throughout the United States and internationally. Collectively they hold twelve degrees in performance from various schools of music and conservatories across the nation.

*Your financial support of the Evensong Concert Series at St. Paul's is appreciated.
Please give as you are able. As a point of reference, a donation of $15 for adults and $10 for students/seniors is suggested and can be mailed to St. Paul's Episcopal Church, 1444 Liberty St. SE, Salem, OR 97302 or online at stpaulsoregon.org
Select "Support Us" followed by "Donate".
Please select Music Guild in the scroll-down menu under "Funds."*

- If you are not on the mailing list for concerts/musical services and would like to receive our mailings, please email stpauls.music.guild@gmail.com. Please provide your full mailing address and indicate if it is permissible to use your email address for Evensong concert reminders.
If you are interested in more information about choir membership, education programs, and worship at St. Paul's, please speak to Paul Klemme at 503-362-3661.
- The Evensong Concert Series is sponsored by St. Paul's Episcopal Church and the St. Paul's Music Guild. The guild serves as a cornerstone of financial support for the monthly Evensong services and concerts at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. The mission of the Guild is to continue the great heritage of Anglican Evensong worship along with programs of musical outreach to the Salem community. Patronage comes from both inside and outside of the parish. Donations can be made at stpaulsoregon.org, select "Support Us" followed by "Donate". Please select Music Guild in the scroll-down menu under "Funds."
- The 2021-22 Evensong Concert Series will continue on November 7 with Alexandre Dossin, Professor of Piano, University of Oregon. He will be performing the "Sonata in B Minor" by Franz Liszt. The concert will be in person at St. Paul's with facemasks required and live-streamed on YouTube. Go to stpaulsoregon.org and select "Music Guild Concerts" from the top menu bar. We thank you for your continued support!
